

Clean Energy Transformation Act

Rulemaking Workshop – Small Utilities Reporting and Planning

April 6, 2020 – 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Virtual Participation Only

Webex

Meeting #: 804 405 714

Password: CETA135!

Agenda

9:00 Welcome and Introductions

Commerce hosts:

Glenn Blackmon, Ph.D., Energy Policy Manager

Sarah Vorpahl, Ph.D., Senior Energy Policy Specialist

Austin Scharff, MSc, Legislative and Rules Coordinator

- WebEx Housekeeping
- Overview of workshop

9:15 Goals in CETA

Sarah Vorpahl

- 2025: Remove coal from portfolio
- 2030: GHG neutral standard
 - Cost-effective energy efficiency resources
 - At least 80% renewable or non-emitting
 - Alternative compliance options up to 20%
 - Ensuring all customers benefit from the transition
- 2045: 100% renewable or non-emitting

9:35 Planning in CETA

Glenn Blackmon

- Before CETA
- New requirements for Integrated Resource Plans
- New requirements of Resource Plans
- New planning requirement: Clean Energy Implementation Plan (CEIP)
- Questions

10:35 Break (review Illustrative Schedule of Plans and Reports under CETA attached to this agenda)

10:45 Reporting in CETA

Glenn Blackmon

- GHG emissions reporting
- CEIP submissions
- Utility reports to demonstrate compliance with CETA
- Questions

11:05 Low Income Energy Assistance Programs

Sarah Vorpahl

- Review work in statute
- Review work to date and go over definitional decisions
- Present timeline through July 31, 2021
- Questions

11:05 Remaining Questions or Concerns

Sarah Vorpahl

11:25 Quick Overview of Compliance Provisions in CETA Rulemaking

Glenn Blackmon

11:45 Next steps and close

Glenn Blackmon